

This proposed "broadcast flag" interferes with any possible fair use I might enjoy with digital media and furthermore stifles innovation by preventing reverse engineering of existing protocols or allowing any royalty free development of open protocols that could protect copyrighted content yet promote fair use. Please place this proposal upon the ash heap and dispose of it.